CONDITIONS OF SALE

All bids to be PER LOT as numbered in the Catalogue.

The highest bidder to be the buyer. In all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final.

Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

Purchases to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be paid on or before delivery, in default of which The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible if the lot or lots be lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.

To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of purchases, no lot will be delivered during the sale.

All lots will be exposed for public exhibition in The Anderson Galleries before date of sale, for examination by intending purchasers, and The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will not be responsible for the correctness of the description, authenticity, genuineness, or for any defect or fault in or concerning any lot, and makes no warranty whatever, but will sell each lot exactly as it is, WITHOUT RECOURSE.

BIDS. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers and use all bids competitively, buying at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

The Anderson Galleries, Incorporated, will afford every facility for the employment of carriers and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carriers and packers.

3 AN ITALIAN SUNSET

A traveller, whose form is silhouetted against the sky, rides on a donkey across an arched stone bridge to a town built among the rocks. The arch way of the bridge frames a boat and a glimpse of the river. The bridge and town with its flat, Italian roofs stand out against the sunset sky. By an artist influenced by Pieter van Laer. 8 ITALIAN 16th CENTURY DESIGN FOR A SHIELD

Two paintings in one frame in gray and gold leather. Painted in Lombardy, assuredly by some important Northern master and probably designed for one of the Italian princes. Paintings of this nature and quality are of excessive rarity and it is believed that no other such pair of designs for a shield have been offered at American sale. Slightly blistered but could be easily repaired. (George S. Hellman coll.)

CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN PAINTER

19 THE WIDOW McGEE

37½ The Widow McGee was an old woman of Schuylkill, Pa., where Luks painted this portrait. It comes from the Breckenridge Collection (in Virginia), the price paid for it in 1902 having been $500. It passed through a fire in the Breckenridge home with some damage to the edges of the canvas, but otherwise with only an improving effect. Mr. Luks considers it one of his masterpieces and among the greatest of his portraits. (George S. Hellman coll.)

N. E. Montrose. Canvas. Signed lower left and also on back of canvas. Height, 24 inches; width, 18 inches.

[NUMBER NINETEEN]

The next five pictures by Wyatt Eaton, coming from the collection of Mrs. Wyatt Eaton, are among a very few examples by this rare American artist that have ever been offered at auction.

DANIEL WEBSTER AND HIS WIFE

[LOTS 28 AND 28a]

The following two portraits to be sold as a pair come from the home of Mrs. Daniel Webster in 33rd Street near Fifth Avenue. These portraits were left by Mrs. Webster to an old family retainer, Mrs. Mary Sotherland, from whom they were directly purchased by the present owner. They constitute both from an artistic and personal point of view a most important pair of portraits relating to the greatest of American orators. An extensive typewritten article on these porraits accompanies them.

FRANCIS ALEXANDER

1800-1881

28 PORTRAIT OF DANIEL WEBSTER

Full face, bust portrait painted in 1825 by a rare American portrait painter, some of whose examples are in the Boston Public Library, and there is a replica in the Dartmouth College Library. This pleasing canvas painted for Webster is the first special item mentioned in his will in the sentence, "To my wife I give the picture of myself by Alexander."

Canvas. Height, 30 inches; width, 25 inches.

JOHN WESLEY JARVIS

FRANS HALS

[ATTRIBUTED TO]

29 BOY WITH FRUIT

This painting offers important possibilities for research as its remarkable brush work points, if not to Hals (under whose name it has gone in previous collections), certainly to some other great painter. (George S. Hellman coll.)

Panel. Height, 16½ inches; width, 14 inches.

J. B. GREUZE

[ATTRIBUTED TO]

1726-1805

30 THE TATTERED BOY

31 GIRL WITH DOG

Young girl seated on a rock by a brook fondling a white dog; background of trees and blue sky. (George S. Hellman coll.)

Canvas. Height, 13 inches; width, 9¾ inches.

A. H. WYANT

32 ADIRONDACK LANDSCAPE

Painting of the Racquette River in the Adirondacks with hills and mountains in the background. Early painting in great detail showing the influence of the Dusseldorf School. (George S. Hellman coll.)

Canvas. Signed at lower left. Height, 14 inches; width, 23 inches.

A. H. WYANT

33 EVENING LANDSCAPE

60- Painting with pool and trees in foreground and beautiful sunset sky in background. Painted in sketchy manner and said to have been given by Wyant to his landlady in lieu of payment of rent.

AND OTHER ARTISTS

39 TWO DESIGNS FOR A FAN

A. Design for a fan whose six panels have delightful little water colors painted by J. F. Murphy, G. H. Smillie, W. S. Macy, Arthur Quartley, R. Swain Gifford and W. J. Smith. The circular panel is a little landscape by J. Ludovici. Each of these panels is signed by the artist and constitutes a very remarkable group.

70- B. Design for a fan whose six panels have delightful water colors painted by Wm. Sartain, Chas. C. Coleman, A. D. Abbatt, Frederick Dielamn, Launitz Raymond and Victor Nehlia. In the circular panel the monogram G. L. S. or G. S. L. appears in blue and gold. All together these designs for a fan make a very unusual item. These two items being made for the two sides of a fan will be sold as a pair. (George S. Hellman coll.)

GEORGE INNESS

40 LANDSCAPE

Painting of woodland scene with brook in foreground. Painted in 1888 and still bearing on the back of the frame the tag showing that it was sent to an exhibition at Buffalo. (George S. Hellman coll.)

235-Canvas. Signed lower left. Height, 9 inches; width, 11 inches.

R. S.

JOHN LINNELL

ENGLISH SCHOOL, 1792-1882

41 THE AFTERGLOW

A row of stately trees, dimly revealing through their branches the last faint afterglow of the sunset. This landscape has in common with all of Linnell's work the pathos with which he invested nature. Paintings by this well-known artist are in the Tate and National Galleries. (Julia E. Green coll.)

40-Academy board. Signed at the lower left. Height, 5¾ inches; width, 10½ inches.

M. H. Rothschild

JOHANN BAPTIST HOFNER

GERMAN SCHOOL, PUPIL OF PILOTY

42 SHEARING THE SHEEP

225-
J. Westmeyer
This is a family scene from Bavarian rustic life, a whole family engaged in the washing and shearing of the little flock of sheep. In the background the men are scrubbing the patient beasts, knee deep in the lake, while ashore in the foreground the women folk are relieving the sheep of their wool. A little boy has caught up his favorite lamb in fear that it, also, will be subjected to such indignities as a bath and a hair cut and presses the small beast to his breast. An animated scene with figures of human beings and animals handsomely painted on a grand scale.

Canvas. Signed and dated, 1871. Height, 65 inches; width, 90 inches.

ALFRED SEIFERT

GERMAN SCHOOL, 1850-1901

43 ROMAN GIRL WITH ROSES

50-
M.C. Bonough
A dark-haired girl in Roman costume, with a wreath of pink roses bound about her head. She is seated upon a marble bench with a basket of pink and red roses by her side. A charming composition combining the spirit of Bulwer's "Last Days of Pompeii" with the lyricism of Alma-Tadema's painting of Roman life.

Canvas. Signed at lower right. Height, 20 inches; width, 12 inches.

ROBERT DE PAWN

BELGIAN SCHOOL, ABOUT 1870

44 FEEDING THE PARROT

30-
Calo.
By the open door of a balcony a lady in a full blue dress feeds her parrot while a dog on a chair below the perch watches with interest. (The late Solomon Mehrbach coll.)

Panel. Signed and dated at the right: Bruxelles, 1872. Height, 21 inches; width, 17 inches.

WIRTCH (?)

GERMAN SCHOOL, 18TH CENTURY

45 HEBREW SCHOLARS—TWO PAINTINGS

15-
Calo.
Portraits of two gray-haired, bearded old men with somewhat similar features, the expression of the one revealing a somber, meditative nature and that of the other an alert, aggressive attitude toward life. (The late Solomon Mehrbach coll.)

Canvas. Height, 6½ inches; width, 5 inches.

JEAN IGNACE ISADORE GRANDVILLE (?)

FRENCH SCHOOL, 1803-1847

46 THE CANINE PROFESSOR

6- A spaniel in professorial dress stands by the side of a table with one paw upon an outspread book and the other thrust deeply into his pocket. His spectacles are pushed back upon his forehead, the entire attitude expressing profound reflection. Pictures of this type, bringing animals into the human comedy according to an artistic fancy of the times, were painted in France by Grandville, whose real name was Gerard. For this reason, the painting being signed Gerard, it is in all probability an early work of Grandville.

(Julia E. Green coll.)

Cowan Canvas. Signed at the left. Height, 10 inches; width $8\frac{1}{4}$ inches.

WILLIAM D. KENNEDY

SCOTTISH SCHOOL, 1813-1865

47 DOG ASLEEP

5- A skye terrier lies asleep by the open door of the dog kennel. Excellent sketch. (Julia E. Green coll.)

CARL HUBNER

GERMAN SCHOOL, 1814-1879

48 FORGIVENESS

190- An old peasant mother intercedes for her son, who has just returned home with his bride. The shrinking girl stands by the door way, while the son, his hand in his mother's, stands awaiting forgiveness. But the old father, still unrelenting sits stubbornly by the table on which his unfinished supper is spread, and tries to resist the pleading of his wife. Background of a peasant cottage with hunting implements upon the wall. (The late Solomon Mehrbach coll.)

M.G. Canvas. Signed and dated 1885 to the right. Height, $31\frac{1}{2}$ inches; width, 40 inches.

CARL HETZ

GERMAN SCHOOL, 1885

49 GAMES

135-
M.C.D.
A merry group of Swiss peasants are playing games—a group at the table at cards, a young man and woman at a game of forfeits, and two children at the right making card houses. Grandfather smokes his pipe and looks down on the merrymaking below, while grandmother sits by the window reading. The bright peasant costumes and the merry expressions of the faces lend variety and interest to this picture. (The late Solomon Mehrbach coll.)

Canvas. Signed and dated München, 1885, at the right. Height, 34½ inches; width, 45½ inches.

C. E. BOETTCHER

GERMAN SCHOOL, 1871

50 TOILET

40-
Mrs. Heine
A sturdy peasant girl in a white waist and a red petticoat is combing her long golden hair near an open window with plants standing on the table below. The curtained bed and the half open chest with a dress hung across it form a dark background for the figure of the girl. (The late Solomon Mehrbach coll.)

Canvas. Signed and dated 1871 at the right. Height, 24 inches; width, 18 inches.

ALBRECHT KINDLER

GERMAN SCHOOL, 1833-1876

51 PORTRAIT OF AN OLD PEASANT MAN

75-
Cowan
A wrinkled, weather-tanned old peasant smoking a pipe. In the lines about the eyes and mouth the artist reveals a shrewd, narrow man come to a defeated and bitter old age. (Julia E. Green coll.)

Canvas. Signed to the left. Height, 7 inches; width, 5 inches

L. BAKALOWICZ

RUSSIAN SCHOOL, ABOUT 1880

52 THE VISITOR

80-
L. Kabanang
A young lady in evening dress cautiously peeps through the red velvet curtain of an anteroom to catch a glimpse of her visitor, while a companion, also in evening dress, gazes over her shoulder with scarcely less interest than that displayed by her friend. The details of costumes and draperies executed with great attention to detail.

Panel. Signed to the left. Height, 20 inches; width, 14¾ inches.

V. CORCOS

FRENCH SCHOOL, 1884

53 THE FIRST KISS

Midway in the descent down a broad stone staircase a lover bends to kiss the hand of a charming lady bearing a large bouquet of daisies and poppies in one arm. Her head is slightly turned to him in shy acceptance of the caress.

Canvas. Signed and dated '84 at the right. Height, 40 inches; width, 24½ inches.

J. KIELHOFF and E. VERBOECKHOVEN

BELGIAN SCHOOL, 1866

54 THE FARMYARD

In the foreground a peasant woman drives the cows and sheep down to a small stream. To the right is a low stone farm house with fine old trees in the yard. A number of chickens run about the lawn. Background of a vista of surrounding country and a broad expanse of blue sky. The landscape by Kielhoff, the figures by the well-known animalist Verboeckhoven. (The late Solomon Mehrbach coll.)

Canvas. Signed at the right: J. Kielhoff, 1866; fig. E. Verboeckhoven. Height, 26½ inches; width, 41 inches.

F. CABRERA CANTO

58 THE QUAI VOLTAIRE IN PARIS

Order.
A characteristic corner of Old Paris on the embankments of the Seine, opposite the Institute de France, the sacred institution for art and science in France. On the embankment are the boxes of the second-hand book dealers whose clientele is composed of original Paris types; the old professor with flowing hair, the baker's boy, the priest. The coachman to the right seems more interested in politics than in books. In the background the statues of Pont des Arts and a typical specimen of Paris street architecture.

85 COW IN THE STABLE

In the foreground a Jersey cow lies upon the yellow straw on the floor of the stable. The interior presents an interesting study in browns and yellows, the dark brown of the beams and rafters blending with the yellow of the scattered straw and with a gleam of sunlight coming through the low window. Excellent study by this well-known American painter. (Julia E. Green coll.)

H. O. WALKER

89 SNOW IN APRIL

105-
M. La. Roche
A landscape of meadows and tree-clad slopes with snow still lingering in the hollows. The artist is particularly skillful in his interpretation of the varied shadings of foliage in early spring. His trees, with their misty greens, browns and yellows have the fresh, growing quality of spring.

Canvas. Signed to the right. Height, 22 inches; width, 35½ inches.

BRUCE CRANE, A.N.A.

93 ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI AT PRAYER

40-
Q.F.B.
St. Francis, bearing the stigmata on his hands, prays in an ecstasy of religious devotion before a crucifix. On a table near him are a skull, symbolizing the transitoriness of human life, a prayer book, revealing the way to devotion, and a rosary signifying salvation through prayer. The picture shows a fine harmony of gold brown tones, and unites subtle modelling with more striking accents in the interpretation of the head. The artist combines a refined understanding of the great Spanish master with a fineness of feeling which reminds one of the more delicate art of the 18th Century.
Canvas. Length, 29 inches; width, 22½ inches.

96 THE TAILOR'S SHOP

21 2 5/2
Order
The intimacy of an old fashioned workshop before the era of strikes and unions. An old white-haired tailor sits cross-legged on the table cutting a jacket while a girl in a red dress bends over a piece of sewing. The open window with its outlook over the industrious city with its rows of smokestacks already predicts the coming of a new era. An excellent painting revealing a broad interpretation of light and color values.

99 PORTRAIT OF A YOUNG WOMAN

Side view with the head turned so that the gaze is almost direct. A young woman of the aristocratic class wearing a small black velvet hat upon the side of her head, and a closely fitted green coat with a wide black velvet collar opening to reveal a white linen neck piece. In the fine features and the clear gaze of the lovely brown eyes, the artist depicts a thoughtful, innately aristocratic type.

101 DESOLATION

A wide stretch of snow-covered ice with two polar bears in the foreground, one lying on the ice, dying from a wound in the side, the other with head uplifted, letting forth a mournful cry. The pale color tints of the northern sky intensify the broad expanse of ice, heightening the effect of desolation by the monotony of color effect. (Julia E. Green coll.)

Wash painting. Signed and dated at the left, N. Y., '86. Height, 18½ inches; width, 35 inches.
